REGISTRATION DAY FOR VOTERS IS TUESDAY, OCT. 26

ELECTION DATA IS GIVEN TO VOTERS OF BOTH SEXES

Boundaries of the Five Wards of Brainerd—Location of Polling Places, Advice to Women is Vote Early in Morning and Afternoon

Registration day in Brainerd, Tuesday, Oct. 26 from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. at the regular polling places. Election day, November 2. Polls open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. for voting.

Boundaries of Wards

The Dispatch has received many queries as to ward boundaries. Here they are in their order:

First ward—That section of Brainerd west of the middle line of South Sixth street and lying south of the main line of the Northern Pacific railway tracks. People living in West Brainerd south of this main line of track belong to the first ward.

Second ward—All that section of the city bounded by the river on the north, the ravine and hill on the east, the Northern Pacific main line on the south and the river and boundary of West Brainerd on the west.

Third ward—This takes in North-east Brainerd lying east of ravine and fill and north of the Northern Pacific main line of tracks.

Fourth ward—This takes in South-east Brainerd east of the St. Paul tracks and south of the N. P. Duluth track.

Fifth ward—South of the railroad tracks west of the St. Paul tracks and east of the middle line of South Sixth street.

Some Examples of Ward Residence

A man living in West Brainerd near the hospital and north of the main line track is a resident of the Second ward.

One residing south of the power house in West Brainerd is a resident of the first ward.

A man living at the Palace hotel is a first ward resident. Living across the street near the postoffice he is a resident of the fifth ward.

A man living near 13th and Oak is a resident of the fourth ward.

Living on Bluff Avenue near the fill he is a resident of the second ward.

Be sure you know which ward you live in, for you register and vote in the ward in which you live.

All Should Register

All entitled to the right of suffrage should register. It makes it much easier checking up the vote election day if you have registered.

All male and female persons 21 years of age or over, who have lived in the state, within which they wish to vote, for at least six months and within the precinct, within which they wish to vote, for at least 30 days, are entitled to vote without being sworn in by Judges of Election, providing they shall have registered as prescribed by law at a proper voting precinct on the dates above named, or, providing they have voted at the last primary election held June 21, 1920.

Absent Voters

Voters, who expect to be absent from the city on Election Day and wish to vote, may apply to the county auditor for proper blanks to fill out and mail to the city clerk in time to be delivered to the proper judges before the closing of the polls on November 2nd.

Location of Polls

First ward—In City Hall.
Second ward—Bowen's paint shop at 617 Main street.

Third ward—Hose house.

Fourth ward—Hose house.

Fifth ward—In small America; Legion hall, second floor of the Koop block, corner Seventh and Laurel. The stairway is just between the Gruenhagen and Koop buildings on Seventh street. Climb the steps and turn to the right.

Women Voters

The majority of men vote between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., and

COX WILL SPEND REST OF TIME IN 4 DOUBTFUL STATES

THIS QUARTETTE IS ALLEGED TO BE WEST VIRGINIA, OHIO, KENTUCKY AND INDIANA

ED L. KEEN.

United Press Staff Correspondent. New York, Oct. 25.—Sixty electoral votes is the prize contested for by republican managers who are devoting their energies to coralling them in the doubtful states, for on them may depend the result of the national election. This quartet is West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio.

Cox will spend one day in Chicago and the balance of his time in the four states mentioned. Although Harding is confined to Ohio, the republicans will flood the other three states with an avalanche of speakers.

It was originally intended to have the republican candidate visit New York city, Connecticut and New Jersey, but this was abandoned because conditions in the east appear satisfactory to the republicans. Harding's presence was not needed, it was asserted, and the republicans claim that ground with large majorities.

The democrats claim Cox will carry West Virginia, Kentucky, and has an excellent chance in Ohio.

Will H. Hays, national chairman of the republicans, is apparently unmoved by democratic jubiliations over Cox's visit in New York.

Inspired by conferences with his chief and other party leaders, Chairman George White of the democratic national committee, places in the Cox

REV. D. S. K. BYRNE

Rev. David S. K. Byrne of Montreal, who will soon enter into possession of the $10,000,000 estate of the late W. G. Byrne. Mr. Byrne in 1907 was David S. Kido, a tea salesman of Toronto, in Chicago on business. He saved the daughter of W. G. Byrne from the slums and was made his heir.

column 222 electoral votes east of the Missouri river and 34 west of the river. "They are as good as counted," he said. That is within 10 of the number required to elect. He conceded to the republicans only 154 electoral votes as absolutely certain.

Clinton, W. Va., (Enroute with Governor Cox)—Governor Cox is moving westward to wage his fight for the presidency in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and West Virginia. There are only seven working days left and democratic strategy aims to center the final moments in Ohio and Indiana. It is generally admitted that failure to secure two of the states named means defeat of Cox.

Governor Cox is invading West Virginia the second time of his campaign, having spoken at Wheeling when first named as a candidate.

BOTH PARTIES END CAMPAIGN IN OHIO WHIRLWIND FINISH

HARDING CHARGES DEMOCRATS WITH INEFFICIENCY AND MISUNDERSTANDING

NATIONAL LEADERS WILL COVER EVERY LOCALITY IN THE STATE

RAYMOND CLAPPER

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) Marion, Ohio, Oct. 25.—The final week's campaign for the presidency opened today with the opposing lines drawn up for a finish fight in Ohio. Senator Harding makes his whirlwind tour winding up at Columbus. Cox is also to start a drive against Harding.

National speakers have been employed to cover every locality in the state. Harding opens Wednesday in Cleveland, the home of Perry S. Davis, republican candidate for governor. Confident predictions are made by the republicans that Harding and Frank B. Willis, candidate for U. S. senator, will carry the state.

Senator Harding has accused the democrats of evading the questions at issue and called on the democrats to answer the following charges:

Democratic mismanagement brought us to the brink of industrial crisis in 1914 and is now leading us to another precipice.

Unpreparedness for war adopted as a political expediency cost America lives and property.

The democratic program is as much unprepared for peace as it was for war, causing staggering financial expenditures.

The democratic administration has been one of grotesque inefficiency.

The democrats have perverted the form of government, overridden the constitution by centralization of power.

Senator Harding wished to lead the American people from the bog of the democrats to a safe, sane footing. Among the policies he enumerated were:

More business in government and less government in business.

Re-organization of administrative departments of the government.

Conservation of human resources and development of natural ones.

Protection of motherhood and Expansion of foreign trade, protection of industries, fostering agriculture, developing the merchant marine.

COURT WILL NOT REVIEW THE CASE

BROUGHT AGAINST SECRETARY OF STATE TO COMPEL HIM TO ACCEPT PEACE RESOLUTION

(United Press)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—The United States supreme court today ended a phase of the controversy to declare America at peace with the Teutonic powers. The supreme court refused to review the suit of Harry McCartney vs. the secretary of state, McCartney having brought suit to have Secretary Colby accept the peace resolution passed at the last session of congress. The state courts decided adversely and the United States supreme court refused to review the action of the state courts.

AMERICAN CITIZEN IS KILLED IN MEXICO

(By United Press)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—The murder of M. Sevre, an American citizen, at Cananea, Mexico, was reported at the state department today. Secretary of State Colby telegraphed to the American consul at Nogales to call on the Mexican authorities to take steps to apprehend the murderer.

MAN INSTANTLY KILLED BY TRACTOR

(United Press)

Canton, S. D., Oct. 25.—Drawn into the machinery of a tractor by its belt, George Isaacson was instantly killed. Matches in his clothing were ignited and set fire to him. Isaacson's skull was split. When discovered, the tractor was still running.

Balloons Over Indiana

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Flying northeastward, the fleet of balloons racing for the James Gordon Bennett cup and other trophies, is reported over Indiana and Lake Michigan. General bulletins have been sent out and lake boats stand ready to assist in case of accident.

The pilot balloon is reported to have descended at Vandalia, making a safe landing after attaining an altitude of 12,000 feet.

FIGHT NOW CENTERING ON SENATE

BOTH SIDES HOPE TO GAIN CONTROL OF THAT BODY—CONTEST CLOSE

L. C. MARTIN.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) Washington, Oct. 25.—With election only a week off, the fight is now centering on the complexion of the senate and the senatorial campaign is engrossing the attention of the party leaders.

Both sides claim supremacy. At present the senate has 49 republicans, 47 democrats and 34 seats are to be filled at election. Of these 19 are now held by the democrats and 15 by the republicans.

Party leaders assert a dozen states are doubtful, putting in the column Kentucky, Connecticut, Ohio, Wisconsin, New Hampshire, Idaho, California, Maryland, Missouri, Colorado and Indiana.

There are contests in several states. In Ohio the campaign for senator is linked up with the national contest of Cox and Harding. Willis, the republican candidate for senator has the advantage of being better known than his opponent.

In Wisconsin the fight is between Lenroot and James Thompson, the latter a LaFollette republican. The democrats pin their hopes on Renssch, and pray he will slip in while the republicans destroy each other.

CORK LORD MAYOR DIES ON 74TH DAY OF HUNGER STRIKE

PASSES AWAY AT 5:10 THIS MORNING—FATHER DOMINICK AND BROTHER JOHN WITH HIM

WAS GIVEN BEEF EXTRACT AND BRANDY WHEN DELIRIOUS LAST FEW DAYS

LLOYD ALLEN.

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Oct. 25.—Terrence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, died at 5:40 A. M. on the 74th day of his hunger strike without regaining consciousness. Father Dominick, his religious advisor, and his brother, John, were with him at the end.

MacSwiney began sinking at midnight. The priest, according to Sinn Fein announcements, was not allowed to communicate with relatives. Two sisters were allowed admission Saturday, but were ejected late at night. The prisoner's wife visited his bedside Saturday afternoon.

MacSwiney became delirious Thursday. Physicians gave him beef extract and brandy when he lost control of himself. He was fed whenever he lost consciousness. His mental attitude was against food and he vowed himself out protesting.

The last outsider to see him was Arthur O'Brien of the Self Determination League. He said the feeding was unnecessarily violent, after MacSwiney had been lying in apparent comfort 70 days, packed in hot water bottles and peacefully contemplating his act.

MacSwiney had several delirious spells during which he raved and shouted, drilling imaginary troops and presiding over imaginary courts. He was arrested Aug. 12 and eleven other Irish republicans went on a hunger strike at the same time. The lord mayor lived to see another of the hunger strikers, Michael Fitzgerald, succumb after 68 days.

Conditions in Ireland became still more acute while MacSwiney lay sick. The government began reprisals. Sinn Fein leaders were shot by "Black and Tans" in reprisal for the deaths of their comrades. Attacks continued to the re-assembling of parliament. Since then the government announced it would not free hunger strikers. The hunger strike of the mayor had for its object obtaining a change in the policy of the government or freedom.

At the start there was general pity expressed and a demand for the release of MacSwiney. Later suspicion was created that he was being fed secretly and interest in the prisoner in a measure subsided. MacSwiney was 41 years old, and was unanimously elected lord mayor of Cork after the murder of MacCurtain. MacSwiney was arrested while holding a session of a republican court.

Ireland in Mourning

Dublin, Oct. 25.—All Dublin is in mourning today over the death of Lord Mayor Terrence MacSwiney. Everywhere church bells are tolling and people in mourning are gathering for prayers.

In his last hours it is stated: The lord mayor remained unconscious since Sunday morning. Neither his wife nor other relatives, except his brother, who visited him for a few minutes, were allowed to see the mayor, the bulletin reported.

"He opened his eyes occasionally, staring sometimes at Father Dominick, but gave no sign of recognition, even when Father Dominick spoke to him. He was moaning as if in pain.

"The restrictions suddenly imposed on the mayor's relatives, limiting or prohibiting their access to the mayor and removing their facilities for communicating with friends outside, were in force two days."

During his imprisonment the lord mayor received numerous messages of encouragement and also petitions to abandon his strike. He replied to the latter that if he gave up his fight he would "give away Irish liberty" and that he would "rather die than do that."

HIS SON WILL SOON BE U. S. PRESIDENT

IND. NAPOLIS.—Dr. George T. Harding, seventy-six years old, father of Senator Harding, came here from Marion to attend the National G. A. R. encampment. When Warren is elected President the country will get a good, honest man who sympathizes with the common people. He was reared that way. He had a noble Christian mother and he was brought to under her fine influence.

Dr. Harding is hale and hearty and has use for neither glasses nor a cane. This was the fifth national encampment he had attended. He was the center of interest among his 60,000 comrades who attended the encampment.

BAKER'S ADVISOR OUT FOR HARDING.

Washington.—Major Benedict Crowell, Mr. Baker's former Assistant Secretary of War, warm admirer of President Wilson, is the latest distinguished man to declare in an interview that he is in favor of the election of Harding and Coolidge and a Republican Congress at the polls in November. Major Crowell goes so far as to say that he is in favor of the league of nations but he prefers to take his chances on getting the league with Senator Harding rather than with Governor Cox.

"Now that President Wilson is retiring from active political life," said Major Crowell, "it is wise for his supporters to pause and take stock of the situation. I have always favored a league of nations but the Democratic party has no monopoly on the league. Indeed, the present Democratic administration has failed on this subject in spite of the fact that 75 per cent of the Senate were in favor of some kind of a league."

"It seems evident that Governor Cox is making many promises regarding the league which he may not be able to fulfill."

Senator Harding, observation lends us to believe, has created a strong impression of earnestness, sincerity and high sense of duty. His utterances are marked by a studied moderation; he exhibits no arrogance of opinion, and has made no extravagant promises of a millennium to be created by proslavery; he seeks rather to express the national spirit than to impose a doctrine of political infallibility. And there is an unmistakably a growing view that Governor Cox is a shifty opportunist, superficial in thought, reckless in appeal and irresponsible in statements.—Philadelphia North American.

RANGE MASS MEETING HELD

Men and Women Organize to Protect the Interests of the Range Country. Committee Named

EACH VILLAGE REPRESENTED

D. B. McAlpine is Named General Chairman of Committee and Robert Marsh Secretary (Ironton News)

A mass meeting of range voters was held at the high school. E. P. Scallion, in a few well chosen words, stated the purpose of the meeting was to discuss matters of vital importance to the range and to formulate plans to further the interests of the Cuyuna range in the coming election. One of the issues of the campaign is the tonnage tax. Being conceded that such a tax is, and will be, a serious blow to the range, it was the unanimous desire of the voters present to support the candidates who can, and will, oppose to the utmost, any such legislation. Men who are opposed to radical, untried, and unsound policies of state government, men who pledge themselves to work continuously for the advancement of the interests of labor to reduce the high cost of living, to eliminate profiteering and unscrupulous business methods, to assist the farmers in the production and marketing of farm produce, and to conduct the state government in the most economical and efficient manner possible.

The meeting was also addressed by Supr. H. R. Edwards, Wilbur VanEvert, and Rev. Kelly. The speakers pointed out that the largest source of revenue this county has is from the mines, that on account of this valuation the county taxes are greatly reduced upon farm land and other property, and that it is of vital importance to each and every voter in the county to have the present method of taxation, one of the fairest and most scientific methods ever devised in any state, continued in force.

This fact should be brought to the attention of the voter of the entire county, and the range solicits the support of the entire county in the coming election for Preus and Collins, Hilton, Dibble, and especially for Representatives Long and Bouch.

That the farmers of Crow Wing County could not, under any possible sound theory be bettered by giving their support to the Non-Partisan League, should be called to the attention of all the farmers and they should be urged to join the people of the range villages in their endeavor to keep the state government clean, and free from any control whereby one part of the state, by selfish, unsound, and unjust legislation would greatly profit at the expense of any other part.

A committee was appointed consisting of one member from each village on the range, such member to appoint and be chairman of such local committees as might be necessary.

The following men were appointed: Robert Marsh, Crosby; D. B. McAlpine, Ironton; Frank Buchanan, Cuyuna; L. L. Foote, Manganese; R. G. Harte, Trommald; W. F. Slaughter, Riverton; H. J. Eruster, Deerwood.

This committee met and appointed D. B. McAlpine chairman and Robert Marsh secretary and arranged to commence immediately the work authorized by the general meeting.

No other system in the body has as vital a bearing on every diseased condition as does the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

It is thru this system that that elusive something travels which actuates the entire human organism. It is upon the activity of the nervous system that every organ in the body is dependent for its function. The heart beats only because it receives thru the nervous system, its normal quantity and quality of energy by way of the nervous mechanism. If it so happens that those nerve fibres are affected which supply the heart it is abnormal in its function; and so this is true of every organ and tissue of the body.

The Chiropractor is trained to detect this abnormality and restore it to proper position thereby insuring normality and perfect function.

Myrna Sharlow Recital
Charter members of the Brainerd Musical Club declare that never in the history of that organization has an artist given such complete satisfaction as did Miss Myrna Sharlow on Sunday afternoon.

To find such voice quality, such perfect breath control, such accurate placement and such sympathetic interpretation combined with so charming and gracious a personality, is rare indeed. Miss Sharlow sang arias and lullabies, folk songs and serenades equally well. Her "Loch Lomond" was tender enough to bring tears to the eyes, and she was particularly happy in her negro spirituals, two of which she chose for encores. But it was in her two arias, from Masked Ball and Madaam Butterfly, and in her closing number "The Year's at the Spring" that Miss Sharlow showed the wonderful power and beauty of her fresh young voice. Detailed description of her work seems entirely superfluous and out of place. The audience showed its appreciation by enthusiastic applause and numerous recalls. Seldom has a Brainerd audience reached such a pitch of enthusiasm, and it would be impossible to make the absent ones realize what they missed.

Just how much her accompanist, Ganville English, contributed to Miss Sharlow's success it would be difficult to estimate, but it was very evident that the artist put a high estimate on her accompanist's contribution. There was such perfect sympathy between the two that it seemed as if both were moved by the same nerve impulse, as if fingers and throat muscles obeyed a single mental control.

In his piano group, Mr. English proved that there is nothing incompatible between good solo work and good accompanying, not withstanding a popular delusion to the contrary. He was enthusiastically recalled and played a negro dance—"Juba", by Detté—something quite new.

A word of commendation is due the House Committee for a stage decoration that harmonized so perfectly with the stage setting. This artistic touch added not a little to the afternoon's pleasure.

Miss Sharlow will sing in grand opera in St. Paul on Saturday of this week. Although her program permitted only hints of her thespian ability, these were sufficient to make many wish to hear her in one of her favorite roles, and no doubt she will avail themselves of the opportunity. The rest may console themselves with the memory of their enjoyment of Sunday afternoon's program. A man is happier for life", says the Rev. Sydney Smith "from having enjoyed any considerable interval of innocent pleasure".

NORTHWEST NEWS

Campaign Battles

St. Paul, Oct. 25.—With only a week to go political battles in the northwest were in full swing today.

The election, a week from Tuesday, will decide one of the biggest struggles Minnesota ever witnessed politically.

Jacob A. O. Preus, republican nominee for governor, is opposed by Mayor L. C. Hodgson, of St. Paul, democrat; Dr. Henrik Shipstead, of Glencoe, independent, and Peter J. Samson, socialist.

Shipstead, carrying the endorsement of the national nonpartisan league, also as the endorsement of the Working Peoples' Nonpartisan Political League. The fight has centered largely between Shipstead and Preus. The issues between the two simmered down is one of non-partisanism versus republicanism.

Hodgson, leading the democratic ranks, has been deserted by some captains, among them Oliver J. Quane of St. Peter, who declared the battle between Preus and Shipstead needed the attention of democrats.

In 1918, just before the end of the war Governor J. A. A. Burnquist was elected on a republican ballot with 168,611 votes. David H. Evans, farmer-labor candidate endorsed by the nonpartisan league, received 111,966 votes. Fred E. Wheaton, democratic candidate, received 76,838 votes. Olaf O. Stageberg, national party candidate, received 6,649 and L. P. Berot, socialist, received 7,795.

Julius Schmah, secretary of state, led the republican ticket in the total number of votes received in 1918 receiving 218,537. Preus was next high on the ticket and was elected state auditor with 214,402 votes.

Because of the fact that women are voting for the first time this year, officials expect the total vote when counted will run over 600,000. On this basis comparisons and estimates this year are considered futile.

Armistice Proclamation Issued

St. Paul, Oct. 25.—Governor Burnquist today issued his Armistice Day proclamation.

"In Nov. 11, 1920, two years will have expired since the signing of the armistice which meant the end of the world war," the proclamation read.

"The event of which the eleventh day of November of each year will forever hereafter be remembered as the anniversary is one of the most important in the history of America and of the world. The armistice, Foch says, 'was tantamount to capitulation and absolute capitulation.' After years of struggle, agony and sacrifice it ended the saddest of all human experiences in the greatest victory of all time.

"Now, therefore, I, Joseph A. A. Burnquist, governor of Minnesota, in appreciation of the splendid valor and heroic devotion of the sons and daughters of our state who assisted in making the great triumph of human rights possible, do hereby proclaim November 11, 1920, as Armistice Day."

"PARTY FACES DISASTER"—GORE

Senator Thomas Gore, Democrat, of Oklahoma, who was defeated for renomination through the influence of the White House because of his opposition to the League of Nations, plainly indicates that he proposes to continue his fight upon the league. The blind senator says:

"The paramount issue is to avert disaster; nobody favors the league that understands it.

"The women of Maine have read it. It is no wonder about the women. It is no marvel about the mothers. They are not willing to mortgage the pound of flesh nearest their hearts.

"They are not willing to sign this bloody bond which is a first lien upon the life of every boy beneath the stars and stripes.

"He was blind indeed who had not already seen the black shadow of the Maine elections visioned upon the horizon."

Timber From Dead Trees.

Some prejudice exists against the use of timber cut from dead trees, says the American Forestry Magazine. As a matter of fact when sound dead trees are saved into lumber, and the weathered or charred outside is cut away, there is no method known to the forest products laboratory by which the lumber can be distinguished from that cut from live trees, except that the lumber from dead trees may be partly seasoned when sawed.

COX'S STATEMENT TO LABOR PROVED TO BE GROSSLY INACCURATE

Claim He Had "Never Pressed a Soldier Into an Industrial Controversy" Not True.

USED OHIO MILITIA TWICE

Question Not About Merits of Strike or Need for Military, but as to Truthfulness.

By WILLIAM HOSTER.

Columbus, O.,—Governor James M. Cox's boasted labor record has been shattered by his own official act, claiming that he had "never pressed a soldier into an industrial controversy," the record of his action as governor of Ohio in mobilizing the National Guard of this state for service in the steel strike of 1919 has been produced in flat contradiction of his assertion.

Not once, but on two occasions was the Ohio guard, at an expense of $23,000 to the people of Ohio, called into service and sent to Akron and held in readiness for action in nearby Canton.

The question is not as to the merits of the strike or as to the necessity for the presence of the guard within striking distance of Canton, but concerns wholly the truthfulness of Governor Cox's statement, obviously made to win favor among the workmen. The facts as brought out in the speech of Republican State Chairman George H. Clark, formally opening the campaign at Columbus, are as follows:

Ordered Guard Out Twice.

After the steel strike had progressed for some days, with more or less disorder, Governor Cox on September 28, 1919, suddenly ordered the mobilization of the guard at Akron. A period of quiet followed, and the troops were withdrawn. And then again suddenly on October 25 the guard was once more mobilized and sent to Akron, and while it lay there at that strategic point awaiting a summons into action staff officers representing Governor Cox kept close watch on the situation in Canton.

In his speech at Wheeling, W. Va., on the night of August 14 Governor Cox said:

"For six years I have been in executive authority in the great industrial state of Ohio. During all this time I have never pressed a soldier into an industrial controversy."

The question is, did Governor Cox tell the truth? Answering this question, Chairman Clark in his Columbus speech displayed to his audience a photographic copy of Special Order No. 32 issued from the Adjutant General's department of the State of Ohio, dated Columbus, October 25, 1919, which designated certain officers for immediate active service and paragraph 4 of which reads:

Facts Presented.

"In anticipation of the development of a rioting condition at Canton, O., the Governor of Ohio has deemed it necessary to assemble a sufficient number of state troops at Akron, O., to be held in readiness to render aid to the civil authorities at Canton, O., and has so directed the Adjutant General of Ohio, who, pursuant to such order, directs Colonel Benson W. Hough to proceed without delay to Akron, O., to take command of all state troops upon arrival at Akron, O., and to hold them in readiness for duty, awaiting further orders."

The order is signed by the Adjutant General and countersigned in these words, "By command of Governor Cox."

Did Governor Cox tell the truth to the workmen?

Supplementing this documentary proof, Mr. Clark produced photographic copies of headlines from Canton, O., newspapers of concurrent date, which read: "State troops mobilizing for duty here. All available companies are ordered out." And, "Governor orders troops for duty here, Ohio soldiers reporting to armories following trouble."

Truth Should Be Known.

The surprising thing about it all is that Governor Cox in his Wheeling speech should have made so flat an assertion when all of the facts with regard to his mobilization of the guard were still fresh in the public mind, at least in Ohio. Of course it is not to be expected that workmen elsewhere in the United States would be familiar with the circumstances, and it was for that reason that State Chairman Clark in his speech stressed the necessity for the people all over the country to be informed that Governor Cox's assertion that he "never pressed a soldier into an industrial controversy" was absolutely at variance with the truth.

Publication of these official facts has utterly confounded the advocates of Governor Cox's election, who have been making a special plea to the workmen on the basis of his West Virginia speech. The revelations as to Mr. Cox's mobilization of the troops are being compared with the sworn statements of liquor league contributors to his gubernatorial campaign fund in refutation of his statement that "the wets have never contributed one dollar to any of my campaigns." In both cases the point is made that the issue is not as to the merit of his mobilization of the troops, on the one hand, or as to the status of the wet and dry question, on the other hand, but that the real issue is as to the degree of truth and accuracy absolutely necessary in one who seeks to be president of the United States.

Some Have Cut Prices--Others Have Guaranteed Prices

We Have Done Both

And Have Gone the Limit on Price and Guarantee

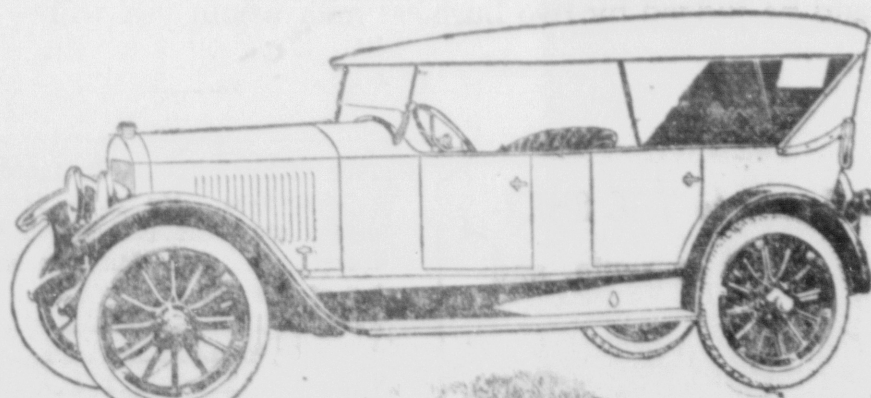

Velie

NEW LOW PRICE

$1385

F. O. B. Moline, Illinois

WITH CORD TIRES

$1,385 for a Velie car equipped with cord tires all 'round! It is an unheard of low price—lower than the car ever sold for before. A cut of $200 in price—cord tires added—actual saving nearly $300. Dealers said it could not be done. Motorists who knew Velie values said it could not be done. But it is done. Here it is—at $1,385. And further you are positively protected against decrease in this price. That means, buy at once. You are not protected against increase. You may have said, "I would buy my Velie today if I knew for certain that prices would go no lower." Read this carefully—

Price Guaranteed by Velie Bond

We have received the following official notice from the Velie Motors Corporation:

"We guarantee to you and the public our present list prices on present models against further decline up to July first, 1921. This means that should we, between this date and July first next, make further decreases in the list price of present models, you are hereby authorized to rebate the amount of any such decrease to purchasers who have paid you list prices now in force. We do not guarantee against increase."

Velie backs this guarantee with a bond given personally to each new car buyer. This settles the price question once and for all.

Velie 6 with Cord Tires at the Price of a 4

Just consider what this price means—A Six of old and famous make at a price as low, or lower than many fours. Compare cars and see for yourself.

Only $1385—both the values remain just the same. The car has the same motor that broke the path into Yosemite and won the Dyas gold cup—the same motor that put the Velie ahead of America's highest priced cars in the Pike's Peak climb—the same motor that is making the Light Six records in fuel-saving. It has the Velie deep, luxurious, genuine leather upholstery—the Velie lasting mirror finish—the complete equipment and the ultra-refinements that mark Velie cars everywhere.

Have Your Velie Now--

Don't Let This Chance Vanish

The wise buyer will make sure of his Velie while this price is in force. Remember the guarantee does not insure that prices will not go up. Present prices are your gain—but they are not logical. You know that. Materials are the same; labor costs have not been reduced. Everything that goes into the Velie Six costs as much today as it did a week ago—and the car is worth just as much.

Our advice to you is, don't wait. Have your Velie now for all the glorious driving ahead this fall. Remember—

Bane Auto Co.

The National Coal association has recently stated that enough bituminous coal is being mined to do the country through the winter. The amount necessary is 12,000,000 tons weekly. The average weekly output for the four weeks ending Oct. 9 was 11,728,250 tons. The average production before that was 10,500,000 tons.

These figures show plainly that if we keep up the present output, the country can get through the winter without serious trouble. But if that output lessens, shortage is imminent. There is no margin of safety in the present quantity of coal being mined.

The mining of anthracite is also increasing, but there is no surplus there either.

Obviously, the United States cannot afford to export coal at present. Yet the British miners are on strike, Britain will soon use up its reserve, and unless the mine strike is swiftly settled, there will be a clamor in England for American coal.

There is power to prevent this export. The Interstate Commerce Commission, by maintaining its priorities, can put a check on export, and the president can, if necessary, re-establish the fuel commission.

It is to be hoped that it will not be necessary to revive these wartime measures. If the British strikers soon return to work, there will be no need. But diverting coal from our none too generous stock to England, thus putting off the day of reaching any final solution of England's problem, and giving our coal operators a chance to close our factories and workshops for the sake of getting high prices from abroad would be a bad business. This is no year to export coal, nor to permit it to be exported.

A frightful accident occurred early Sunday morning 15 miles from Pine River when W. A. Spurrier, Jr., age 29, was instantly killed by a dynamite explosion.

Spurrier had a considerable quantity of dynamite on the farm, used for ditching, etc., in various projects connected with his $300,000 land company known as W. A. Spurrier, Jr. & Co.

He went to the hay loft to throw down some hay. A minute later there was a tremendous explosion, his head was torn from his body and the barn completely wrecked.

He leaves a wife and three small children. Mr. Spurrier has been a resident of Cass county the past three years and has done much to bring in a flow of new settlers and to settle up the country.

Accompanied by relatives, the remains were brought through Brainerd today to Des Moines, Iowa, his former home.

after 5 p. m. Therefore, to avoid congestion at the polls as much as possible, the judges of election would appreciate it very much as well as the men voters, if the women voters make an effort to cast their vote between the hours of 9 a. m. and 11 a. m., and between 2 p. m. and 5 p. m., especially those who are not employed and can leave their homes during those hours. The biggest rush comes during the hours that the employed, both male and female, are off duty or home from their places of business. The heaviest vote is always cast after 5 o'clock p. m., at which time the car shop men and other shop and factory employees cast their votes.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Dispatch:

Permit me to again call the attention of the taxpayers of the 1st, 3rd, and 5th commissioners districts that the office of county commissioners is the most important office to be filled in the county this year insofar as the office affects the taxpayers of the county.

The county commissioners are the legislative body of the county and expend every dollar of your tax money not specifically disbursed by statute, and upon the intelligence and business capacity of the board depends the tax rate that you must pay for county purposes.

With the highest revenue producing valuation in the history of the county your taxes are soaring by leaps and bounds with no relief in sight at the hands of the present board. It requires no great amount of intelligence or business capacity to make a showing when they soak the taxpayers to the limit even under our high valuation, and added to that, burden the county with a few additional hundreds of thousands of interest-bearing securities that will probably hang on our necks for generations to come.

I do not hesitate to make the positive statement based on eight years of experience on the board with a revenue producing valuation of less than half on the average of our present valuation that the present board is not conducting the business of the county along intelligent and business-like lines.

Since the 2nd and 4th districts do not elect commissioners this year, we will have to depend on the districts that will elect to do their work well, and two years hence, we, of the 2nd district will pledge you a shakeup in our district.

Present conditions are detrimental to the interests of the county and should not be permitted to continue.

C. A. KRECH

Brainerd, Route 5

A COMMUNICATION

Editor Brainerd Dispatch:

In Friday's issue of Oct. 22nd I noticed a communication criticising the ability and good judgment of the members of the present city council, also questioning my qualifications as a candidate for the office of county commissioner. I will let this question be decided by the voters of the Third County Commissioners District where the problem rightly belongs. I would rather not have the support of the voters, feeling that I had to resort to some "trick" to get it. All the wisdom and sophisticated expressions of the author of that communication signed "A Citizen" will not change the opinion of the voters of Fourth and Fifth wards in regard to my qualifications as a candidate for the office of county commissioner or my action as a member of the present city council. I am not ashamed of any action there taken for I know that every member has worked earnestly, honestly and unselfishly to the best interest of Brainerd and not any special interest. The present council should not be made a target of any violent criticism because of the location of the water tank as referred to by the so-called Citizen.

I invite the author to come from behind the bush, let the public know who he is and sign his own name when assailing the actions of the present city council or myself as a candidate for the office of county commissioner, otherwise I am inclined to believe that he is Mr. E. Z. Mark for some one else.

Few Plays

(Contributed by D. H.)

The Brainerd warriors of the grid-iron were easily victorious over Crosby Saturday by a score of 21 to 6 in the opening game of the season. The Brainerd eleven outclassed their opponents from the first. Forward passes and trick plays were Brainerd's chief means of gains.

The playing of Hill, Engstrom, Sheffo, Welch, Hendrickson were the chief features of the game.

Sheffo was handicapped in throwing forward passes due to the wind which was blowing directly from the north.

FIRST QUARTER

Brainerd opened the first period with a kick off to Crosby. Crosby returned the ball to the thirty yard line but was unable to make her gains. Brainerd received the ball on the 35 yard line. A forward pass from Sheffo to Hill was incomplete. Another try and Hill received the ball from Sheffo and making an end run went over for a touch down. Welsh kicked goal. Score Brainerd 7, Crosby 0.

Brainerd again kicked off to Crosby with the same results that Crosby could not make her gains. Brainerd received the ball on the 25 yard line. Hill received a forward pass from Sheffo and went over for another touchdown. Welsh kicked goal. The score was now 14 to 0 in favor of Brainerd with only ten minutes of play gone.

Brainerd kicked off to Crosby who were again unsuccessful and the ball was on the 35 yard line in Brainerd's hands. A forward pass Sheffo to Engstrom which was complete netted another touchdown for Brainerd. Welsh kicked goal. At this time the Brainerd team received a hard blow, Hill the speedy little end who had twice gone over for a touchdown was compelled to leave the game due to a sore shoulder received in practice during the week. Having been thrown hard in a tackle he was obliged to leave the field. The line was then shifted, Hendrickson taking Hill's place and Carjola taking Hendrickson's place at tackle. The first quarter ended with Brainerd in possession of the ball on Crosby's 20 yard line.

Score Brainerd 21, Crosby 0.

SECOND QUARTER

Both teams tightened down in this period and the ball was back and forth between the teams for some time. Crosby had the ball on Brainerd's thirty yard line and with an end run carried the ball to Brainerd's 2 yard line and Young on a line plunge went over for a touchdown for Crosby. Young failed to kick goal as he allowed the ball to touch the ground and Capt. Sheffo ran out and held it. The first half ended.

Score Brainerd 21, Crosby 6.

THIRD QUARTER

The teams fought hard this period the ball going from one team to the other. On a forward pass from Sheffo to Engstrom, Engstrom went over for a touchdown but the ball was recalled as Brainerd was off side and penalized 5 yards.

This ended the period with the score Brainerd 21, Crosby 6.

FOURTH QUARTER

The fourth period opened with the ball in the center of the field in Crosby's possession. They could not make their gains due to the great work of the Brainerd line who held them on every play. It will be well to state that Crosby had only three plays, a formation shift of backfield and tackles and forward passes and when they were unable to make their gains (which they very seldom did) they punted. The game ended with Brainerd in possession of the ball on Crosby's 10 yard line.

Final score Brainerd 21, Crosby 6. Some fifty cars made the trip from Brainerd to the game at Crosby carrying about 250 ardent rooters. The yelling squad of the cheer leaders Desmond Hurley and his assistants Miss Irene Quinn and Arthur Weber cheered the boys on to victory. Many of the rooters today are unable to talk. Brainerd team had much better support than the Crosby team because there were more Brainerd rooters than Crosby rooters at the game.

Come on Brainerd! Keep it up. There is no game arranged as yet for next Saturday as Little Falls cancelled their game this morning, but the wires are hot between here and Bemidji trying to arrange a game. Saturday's line-up:

FOUGHT TO GET INTO A UNIFORM

Louis L. Collins, Candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, Has Notable Record as Soldier.

By J. C. McDermott.

"The best corporal in the A. E. F.," is what Colonel George E. Leach of the famous 151st Field Artillery, dubbed Louis L. Collins, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of Minnesota, who has a war record of which no man need be ashamed.

Collins was working on a Minneapolis newspaper when the clouds of war lowered over America. On the day that Congress made its momentous decision, Collins closed his desk, put on his cap and coat and visited the army recruiting office.

He is only 5 feet and 1/2 inch tall and his poundage totals only 102. But the stout heart that beats within his diminutive body is out of all proportion to his other dimensions.

Finds "Nothing Doing."

The army recruiting officer smiled indulgently when he asked to swap his business suit for the O. D.'s of the American soldier. They explained that army requirements would have to be materially changed if he were to be admitted.

L. L. COLLINS.

He tried to do business with the navy and marine corps but at each place he met the same rebuffs. Instead of going back to work, satisfied that he had done his bit, Collins tried a new tack.

He closed his business affairs and started for France. He had heard of the renowned Foreign Legion, where brave hearts count for more than large frames.

At the headquarters of the Foreign Legion in the shadow of the tomb of Napoleon, Collins became a private soldier in the French army.

He was at once appointed pilot of an ambulance in the 26th Division, a shock unit with a great fighting record. Within a short time he was in action on the Picardy front before Saint Quentin.

Enters American Army.

In October, 1917, the French government granted honorable discharges to all Americans enrolled under the tricolor, so that they could enlist in their own army.

Collins knew it was folly to run the gamut of enlistment officers again, so he got in touch with Colonel Leach, then at Camp Mills, L. I. Leach indicated that he might overlook some of the enlistment requirements. That's why Collins boarded a New York bound steamship one rainy day in the fall of 1917.

But he reached America to find it full of disappointments. His first setback came when he learned that sudden orders had sent the 151st to France. He had passed the outfit in mid-Atlantic.

He decided to follow it back to France, but getting out of America was serious business.

Gets Senator's Aid.

The state department refused to grant him permission to leave and he went to Senator Knute Nelson. He told the senator that he asked only the privilege of paying his way to France to enlist as a private soldier.

"Scores have come to me to help save them from the draft or to get them commissions in the ordnance or quartermaster corps," Nelson said. "But I'll be doggone if you aren't the first that has begged me to be a private." Nelson was a Civil War soldier and has a warm spot in his heart for the men who carry the packs.

Together they went to the state department to see Secretary Lansing. "What's this I hear about your refusing a passport to my friend Collins?" the senator demanded. Mr. Lansing explained the rules.

Nelson Gets Action.

"Well, rules or no rules, he's going to get a passport, even if it's necessary for me to go to the White House," Nelson thundered. Collins had his passport in an hour.

In Paris, the future looked dark. No one seemed to want to tell where the 151st was located. More than a month was spent in fruitless quest. One day, he found some members of the regiment on leave. They whispered the name of the town. It was Coetquidan.

"A first class fighting man wants a job with a first class fighting unit," Collins told Colonel Leach.

"First class fighting men are just what we need," answered the C. O. The examining officer, Captain John Eosenwald, who later died gloriously in battle, was perhaps a little careless about ascertaining Collins' weight and height. Anyway, before night, he was in uniform. It was a little long in the sleeves and a little liberal in the legs and the blouse could have done without quite so much cloth—but it was the goal he had fought so hard to reach.

On Lorraine Front.

A few days later, the 151st went into action on the Lorraine front. And as it swung along the road to its destination, Collins was astride one of the pieces.

He asked to be assigned to the guns and in a short time he was "No. 1" and had the personal satisfaction of pulling the lanyard that opened the iron throat of the "Soxainte-Quinze" to bark back the Yankees' answer to the Boche hymn of hate.

Through all the sanguinary engagements in which the 151st played such an epic part, Collins stuck to his guns. At Chateau Thierry, in Lorraine, at St. Mihiel, on the Ourcq, on the Vesle and in the tangled mazes of the bloody Argonne he played his small part in laying down the barrage, those great curtains of steel that saved thousands of good young American lives.

With the signing of the armistice, the 151st moved across the Rhine and for several months, Collins was a member of the Army of Occupation.

Home Once More.

It was May 7, 1919, that the 151st—the pride of Minnesota—marched through the streets of Minneapolis and St. Paul. The returned boys received the greatest ovation ever recorded in Minnesota.

George Leach, at the head of the tin-hatted warriors, was wildly acclaimed but his welcome was not a bit more stirring than that accorded the "best corporal in the A. E. F."

At the republican convention in St. Paul, May 8, Collins received a remarkable tribute when he was unanimously selected as candidate for lieutenant governor. His nomination was seconded by a "buddy" from the 151st.

BACK PORCH CAMPAIGN TO BE BEGUN SOON BY WILSON.

Washington. — Gradually being pushed to the rear by the progress of the canvass it is now announced that President Wilson is to wage a "Back-Porch" campaign. The local evening papers announce this fact and say that the plan is being discussed by the Administration leaders. It may even come within a week, some of these leaders believe. Edmund H. Moore, who managed Governor Cox's pre-convention campaign, is given credit for this rear attack on the Harding method of using the front porch.

Statue of Nude Woman Placed in the Churchyard of Old St. Marks

The placing of the statue of a nude woman in the churchyard of old St. Marks, in New York City, is expected to precipitate a controversy throughout artistic and religious circles. The statue, called "Little Lady of the Dew," by Solon H. Borglum, brother of Gutzon Borglum, is located near the walls of the church under which Peter Stuyvesant lies buried. It was placed there with the approval of the rector, Dr. William Norman Guthrie, who has earned the reputation of being a "radical" in church affairs.

Today's Geography

FIUME: OBJECT OF RIVAL CLAIMS

The exploits of Gabriele d'Annunzio at Fiume, recalling the adventures of a medieval knight, keep that ancient city in the public eye.

If Trieste was the Bremen of Austria, Fiume was the Hamburg of the Hungarian kingdom, a close rival for the brisk Adriatic trade of the period before the war.

Fiume is another of those footholds on the eastern Adriatic where Italians clung fast despite the steady influx of Slavs in the interior, and in this case even into Fiume itself. Thus the city bears evidence of early Italian culture, it figured as a potent Slav factor in the turmoil of Balkan politics, and it felt strongly the influence of Hungary upon its thriving industries and fast growing commerce.

Magyar gerrymandering caused it to be annexed to Hungary in 1870, despite the protest of Croatia to which it had belonged since the revolution of 1848-49. Tender consideration for its value as a seaport, rather than for its citizens, prompted its establishment as a royal free town, making it a geographical slice of about seven square miles cut out of Croatia.

Despite the Hungarian interest in the city its pre-war population was 90 per cent Italian and Slav, with the Italians slightly predominant. Only about half the remaining tenth were Hungarians. The Slavs included Croats, Serbs and Slovenes. As important to Hungary as are New York or Boston to the United States, Fiume's total population is not much greater than such suburbs of those American ports as East Orange, N. J., or Newton, Mass.

Fiume is situated on the northeast shores of the Gulf of Quarnero, only seventy miles by rail, southeast of its trade rival, Trieste. Across the bay is the popular summer resort, Abbazia, famed for its evergreen laurel and profusion of roses, to which tens of thousands of visitors formerly thronged each summer.

The older town, distinctively Italian, is built on the hillside, overlooking the gulf. The newer city lies nearer the waterfront. There are three harbors. The largest, accommodating 150 large vessels, is protected by a breakwater half a mile long. The quay is nearly two miles long.

Before the war Fiume's manufacturing plants included a government tobacco factory, the Whitehead torpedo works, a rice shelling factory, a petroleum refinery, and many smaller plants, among which were saw mills and paper mills. Its fisheries constituted an important industry. It exported sugar, grain, flour, horses and timber.

"GO WEST," SAID GREELEY; "SPREAD OUT," SAYS ELIOT

How are the evils that go with city crowding to be avoided in the face of the increasing congestion of American cities?

By making the cities more like the country, is the gist of one noted thinker's solution of that question. Despite the steady procession of country folk to cities, their new environment lacks many of the benefits of the places they came from, in his opinion.

Charles W. Eliot, world-famous educator, in a communication to the National Geographic society says:

"In order to cure the destructive evils of present urban life and the factory system, it will not be enough to restrict the vices, to diminish the pressure of poverty, to prevent destructive diseases, and prolong the average human life. The human environment must be not only negatively but positively improved; so that the whole people may have the opportunity to cultivate healthy tastes and interests, to acquire just ideals of pleasantness and beauty, and to learn the value toward tranquil happiness of that living with nature which city congestion has within a single generation made almost impossible for multitudes.

"The present evils of city life and the factory system—bad conditions which civilization has itself created—have developed their destructive forces in this country in spite of the schools and churches and of free political institutions, and in spite of many happy influences from art, poetry, music and the drama. Clearly, society needs to develop a new and better environment favorable to both bodily and mental health and to the attainment of genuine happiness—not of mere momentary excitement, pleasures and gratifications, but of solid contentment, and the lasting satisfaction of life enjoyed in quietness and peace. What are the means of compassing this end?

"The readiest means is good planning of city, town and landscape—first applied to areas still open, and then gradually to areas already occupied in undesirable ways. The new planning must take into account the interests of the whole community, as well as the interests of individual owners, the social or collective interest always prevailing.

"The immediate objects to be sought are more light and air for dwellings, offices, shops and factories; and thus a spreading out of cities; the transfer of factories to suburbs and to country sites along the lines of railway; the multiplication of playgrounds and open decorated areas, and above all the attachment of a piece of arable or garden ground to every family dwelling.

"The collective force of the community must further supply the means of making rural and landscape pleasures occasionally accessible to city populations by means of parks and gardens which illustrate all forms of open-country beauty and permit the occasional enjoyment by city families or larger urban groups of the outdoor pleasures which woods, shrubberies, gardens and broad fields can give."

LISTEN, Lester, and you shall hear: There are three ways to roll a cigarette—wet it with your tongue, use paste, or crimp it.

But Spur is the only cigarette—note that word only—that has the crimped seam. No moisture as when you roll a cigarette—no paste as used by other makers.

Crimping makes Spur draw easier, burn slower, taste better. Looking at
